"Well," said the bright woman who had asked for Pearline to the grocer who wanted to sell her some imitation of it, "whether you do sell more of these other things or not there must be one thing in Pearline which makes the ones avoid it. I notice that all the Pearline packages are clean and fresh. All the others are fly specked!" This is the story. Everything is one that we print about Pearline. The thing in Pearline that keeps flies off is its popularity. It doesn't stay on the shelves long enough to become soiled. When women want washing made easy without any risk of harm they must have Pearline. Send [illegible] as good as" [illegible]—Pearline is never peddled. If it comes back [illegible] sends you something in place of Pearline, be honest—send it back. 415 JAMES PYLE, New York.

BEATS HIS OWN RECORD

Arthur F. Smith Makes His Second Trip on a Bicycle from Chicago to New York.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17. Arthur F. Smith, a Chicago letter carrier, completed his second long trip on a bicycle from Chicago to New York at 7.05 last evening. He left Chicago at 5.30 A. M. on the 9th inst., and therefore covered the thousand miles in 7 days, 13 hours, 35 minutes, reckoning the hour's difference of time between the two cities. This feat chops 9 hours and 45 minutes off his previous time which was the record over the northern route.

The ride between the two cities over the southern route was accomplished recently by George W. Woife, of Chicago, in 6 days, 8 hours and 10 minutes.

Smith started with the intention of beating this time, and also making intermediate marks. He succeeded in the latter case, for from Chicago to Cleveland he rode in 2 hours and 10 minutes quicker time than the trip was ever made before.

VINEYARD HAVEN, Mass., Oct. 17. Schooner Ulrika R. Smith, of Milbridge, Me., Capt. Pickett, Bangor for Pawtucket, R. Yesterday during a southerly gale she lost part of her sails and the vessel sprung a bad leak. The pumps were kept constantly working to keep the vessel from filling and she was taken in tow off Chatham by steam tug Jacking and arrived here this morning.

The body of a man drifted ashore at Chilmark on the north side of this island yesterday. It wore a life preserver and had apparently been but a short time in the water. It is supposed to be the body of George W. Allen, the engineer drowned from steamer Majella at Narragansett Pier the 10th inst.

FREER TRADE RELATIONS

Argentine Congress Considering a Bill Looking to Reduction of Customs Duties.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17. The Congress of Argentine, following the example of the United States, is now considering a material reduction of customs duties. Such a bill has already been reported from a committee. It is designed principally to affect the higher rates on foreign importations. Reductions amounting to 25 per cent. are made in some cases and much lower in others. The average reduction, however will be 15 per cent.

Included in these are duties on a number of articles of American manufacture, particularly agricultural implements. Pine lumber and kerosene are also among the articles to be benefited by the proposed new rate.

Senor Seballos, Minister from Argentina to the United States, says the drift of sentiment among the people of his country is in the direction of freer trade relations with the other nations of the world. Whatever may be the fate of the bill as a whole, it is believed by Senor Seballos that a 15 per cent. reduction will be made on American agricultural implements, American kerosene and pine lumber.

Davis, at the woman's request, went to West End Hotel with her. Burbank followed, and it is alleged, reported that Davis occupied a room with the woman. Davis denies the truth of this and brings suit for libel and slander. The trial will be long and many witnesses will be introduced to testify to the character of the two parties.

FOUGHT LIKE A TIGER.

Suspect Arrested Near Cumberland, Md.

Believed was Connected with Robbery at Quantico, Md.

Tells Many Conflicting Stories Regarding His Movements.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17. A morning paper prints the following despatch from Cumberland, Md., dated five o'clock this morning:

This morning at about 1.10, Officer Beck noticed a man acting in a rather suspicious manner near the Baltimore & Ohio depot. He tried to board the Express train No. 9, West bound, with two satchels. The man answered the description of the one who was implicated in the robbery of the express car at Quantico, Va., last week. As soon as the officer attempted to make the arrest the man started to run, but was soon caught by the officer. He claimed to have been stopping at one of the hotels in this city, and upon being taken to each of the hotels in turn claimed that it was a different one. He was taken to the station house and upon being searched $1,573 was found hidden in two Woolen Stockings.

Nine hundred and ninety three dollars were in notes and $610 in silver. One silver watch and one gold one, a lot of pawn tickets and three pocketbooks. A five Colts navy revolver was on his person. There were forty-three cartridges in his pocket and a memorandum book showing where the entire boodle had been divided between the men. In his satchel were found old muddy shoes, a slouch hat and wearing apparel that looked like disguises. He said he was an ex-detective in Missouri and afterwards denied it. He asked to be taken to the closet and while there tried to hide another revolver and some money, but was caught in the act. The man is rather stout and weighs at least 160 pounds is six feet tall and neatly dressed.

It was discovered by the officials that he had arrived in this city at about 11 o'clock yesterday morning and had gotten away with several hundred dollars in a gambling house.

He claims to belong to the Knights of Pythias, Masons and several other orders. He was seen yesterday coming out of a clothing store by Officer Goss who, on questioning him last night, asked him about this occurrence. The man stated that he had purchased two suits of clothes and had paid for them and intended coming back to this city to get them.

He refused

and after being examined was committed to jail to await a trial on the 25th of this month.

Offier Beck, who made the arrest, says the man fought like a lion and attempted to draw a revolver. Since he was committed to jail he has become sullen and refuses to talk. He curses the officer who made the arrest and threatens to make things lively for him if he gets the chance. Before his commitment he told so many conflicting stories that there is not the least doubt but that he is one of the men who so successfully robbed the express.

It is rumored in police circles that several men have been arrested at Cherry Run, West Virginia, all of whom have large amounts of money upon their persons, but as yet no further particulars could be learned.

A number of police will go to the scene at once when the men will be brought to this city.

Suspicious Characters Arrested.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17. A United Press special from Cherry Run, W. Va., says: Two suspicious characters were arrested here yesterday. A third escaped through a dense wood. One of them was from appearance addicted to the opium habit and broke down when arrested, but was restored by a hypodermic injection. The other, a man of athletic build, was chased through the swamps several miles and was finally taken prisoner after a fight. He carried a revolver but was prevented from using it. He disclaimed any knowledge of the opium fiend and both men disclaimed any connection with the robbery, and there was not the slightest evidence found upon them to connect them with it or to justify the rumor that the train robbers had been caught.

Unknown Man Arrested.

CUMBERLAND, Md., Oct. 17. A special from Cherry Run, W. Va., this morning says: An unknown man was arrested near here yesterday, answering the description of one of the men implicated in the Acquia Creek robbery. He was very desperate and caused considerable trouble before being overpowered. He carried a 44 calibre self acting revolver and held up a number of men, but was finally arrested by George Spangler, a Western Maryland conductor. Spangler and several other men were slightly wounded. A companion of the prisoner, who carried a satchel, escaped through a deep ravine in the mountain and has not been seen since. Both men were well dressed.

A reporter went to the jail this morning to have an interview with the prisoner, who gave his name as C. J. Searcey. He refused to talk much and said that all he had to say was that he was not the man wanted and that he would prove his innocence. The reporter asked him whether he would prove an alibi, but he evaded the question. He then asked the sheriff for a lawyer and a local practioner was asked to represent him. In addition to the things found on his person last night there was discovered 200 Honduras lottery tickets in the pawn ticket package late this morning, which Searcey would not account for.

NEWS OF THE INDIANS

Making Great Progress in Cattle Raising in the Northwest.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17. Commissioner of Indian Affairs Browning has returned after a month's tour of inspection of the Indian reservation of the northwest. He expects that within a few years the Indians of that region will have become self-supporting and thereby save the government considerable money now necessary in issuing rations, as they are making great progress in cattle raising. On the day the Commissioner left the Standing Rock agency in North Dakota the Indians sold six hundred head of first-class cattle to the agent. There the crops of the Indians in the northwest have generally failed. The Indian children are attending the schools in larger numbers than usual at this time of the year, and an improvement in morality, education and religion was noted by the Commissioner.

BATTLE IMMINENT.

Opposing Forces Face Each Other on Yalu River.

Trouble Reported Between Ministers at Pekin.

All Foreigners Ordered to Leave the Capital.

BOSTON, Oct. 17. A special cable from Shanghai to the Boston Herald says: Fifteen thousand Japanese troops under Field Marshal Oyama, are encamped across Regents Sward Promontory, to the north of Port Arthur and within sight of that naval stronghold. They are waiting for a favorable moment to move forward. While outside the port the cruisers of the Japanese are ready to intercept all retreat seaward.

The two opposing armies still face each other on the banks of the Yalu. The Chinese work night and day strengthening their defences.

Count Yamagata, the Japanese Commander-in-Chief is awaiting the arrival of heavier artillery before attacking the Chinese position. Japanese scouts estimate that the Chinese force altogether number 25,000 men.

The scouts have brought in detailed information as to the condition of the Chinese defences, showing that they are not so strong as the first reports indicated. The Chinese artillery is shown to be less formidable than the Japanese had supposed.

A Decisive Attack

is expected shortly.

Various indications justify the belief that the chief stand of the Chinese will be at Kuheuchen.

Sung Kwei, the Emperor's father-in-law, has reached Shan-Hai-Kwan, the place on the Gulf of Liao Tung where the high road from the coast to Pekin begins. He takes the chief command and will try to prevent the landing of a force of the enemy at this point, which possesses great strategic importance.

All the foreigners who still remain in the Capitol have received peremptory orders to leave.

The negotiations for peace have collapsed.

A serious split has occurred at Pekin between Mr. O'Connor, the British Minister, and Count Cassin, the Russian Minister.

Several hundred Chinese prisoners who were taken at the battle of Ping Yang, arrived in Tokio to-day. Crowds were in the streets to see the captives and followed them from the station to the prisons. The crowds were quiet and orderly, indulging in no insults or signs of exultation.

Capt. Veen Hanrecken, the German officer wounded in the battle off the mouth of the Yalu river, is suffering from blood poisoning and is not likely to recover.

The Proposals for Peace

LONDON, Oct. 17. Sir Halliday McCartney, secretary of the Chinese Legation, declared in an interview to-day that whatever negotiations may have been entered into between England and Japan with a view of terminating the war, China has not assented to any proposals for peace.

YOKOHAMA, Oct. 17. Steamer Mojune, recently purchased in England by the Japanese government, has arrived here, having made the passage from Cardiff in thirty-three days, steaming 8,900 miles without stopping. Although the Chinese war ships were on the lookout for her, she had no difficulty in eluding them.

MR GOFF MISTAKEN

NEW YORK, Oct. 17. Supt. The thing is impossible on its face, said Mr Dunphy.

Terrible Gale on the North Pacific Coast.

Believed Ship Ivanhoe Lost with All on Board.

Ex-Minister Fred Grant One of the Passengers.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 17. The gale which has prevailed along the north Pacific coast since Saturday last has undoubtedly caused widespread disaster to shipping interests. At least three schooners are known to be wrecked.

There are grave reasons for believing that the American ship Ivanhoe has been lost with all on board, and there is little doubt that the Southern Pacific raft of 10,000 spars and piles, valued at $30,000, has been broken by the elements. The news of the next few days, it is thought, will show still greater loss.

From Tacoma a number of wrecks are reported. The Ivanhoe has now been out twenty-one days. She carried a crew of 18 men. Fred Grant, Ex Minister to Bolivia, was a passenger on her to enjoy the novelty of a sea voyage. A mast and yards, painted yellow and believed by seamen to be part of the rigging of the Ivanhoe have been sighted off the Oregon coast. A floating deck house painted as was the Ivanhoe's, was also seen in that locality.

Chemical Perfumes.

Chemistry seems to furnish substitutes for the expensive perfumes now made from flowers. It has long been known that the exact odor of the banana is produced in the laboratory. There seems a possibility, however that even when some fragrant plants cease to be cultivated for the perfumes many may become of importance in surgery. It has been discovered that some such plants are free from the attacks of insects and from fungous growths, and this may be due to the fact that their essential oils have antiseptic properties. The eucalyptus yields an antiseptic, and so do other familiar plants. — Chicago Herald.

Cheerfulness.

A recipe for cheerfulness which Mrs. Edmund Gosse gives in a monthly is worth repeating: To two parts of unselfishness add as much fresh air as can easily be obtained. Stir in two hours of hearty sleep, a silver tongue (from the tip of which all spite has been removed) and an eye that looks out on the brighter side of life. Into this mixture throw a pinch of humor and a sprinkle of the essence of romance. And there you are.

LADIES' DAY.

Aroused Their Deepest Interest.

Music Hall, Boston, Filled With Ladies.

Best Private Lecture Ever Given to Ladies.

Splendidly Illustrated. A Perfect Success.

These Lectures Grow Popular Every Year.

[Special from Boston.]

BOSTON, Oct. 18. Another grand lecture by Dr. Greene in Music Hall, Boston. Out of that immense audience of ladies there was not one to whom the Doctor's powerful words did not appeal most strongly. Indeed there were very few who did not feel that he was talking directly to them and describing their own complaints. He has a most remarkable power of describing disease and making every person in public and not feel that he is speaking directly to them telling them directly what their trouble is.

It was another one of those private lectures to ladies given by Dr. Greene of 14 Temple Place, Boston. Those in Music Hall, Boston, have been but of this successful specialist either through his instructive and valuable lectures, or his still more remarkable ability to cure disease with his system of harmless vegetable remedies.

Dr. Greene has gained right of curing disease when all others have failed until he has convinced the public everywhere that his system of treatment has a power to cure chronic, lingering and nervous complaints, which has not been equalled by any method of treatment. The Doctor knows that he is in the right and he has proved to the public that he is honest and conscientious in his dealings with everybody.

There is no class of disease so prevalent as those complaints and weaknesses pertaining to women. The success which Dr. Greene has met with this class of patients is more than wonderful. He has made a special study of these complaints. He has fathomed their very depths, learned their cause, the exact nature of every part in and so skilfully and adroitly applied the action of his harmless vegetable remedies to the weakened and diseased parts that there are almost no cases which cannot be cured and certainly none which cannot be greatly benefited by them.

There are very few ladies of the present day who are in perfect health who are not affected by some of those weaknesses and ailments peculiar to the sex. This is due to several causes. The peculiar susceptibility of women to various complaints, habits of life, dress, over work, all conspire to produce those ailments which cause so much suffering among women.

The most prolific cause of all is over work. Nearly all women overwork in some way. The busy housewife must keep her house in order, and in do this she toils early and late. With her it is constant work, and but little if any rest. Household cares, anxiety, worry and work soon have their trace on body and mind. The young working girl keeps at her task day after day, little suspecting how seriously she is undermining her health and what an enormous amount of suffering she is preparing for her future. The society lady, by a constant round of gaiety, exhausts her system and lays the foundation for innumerable complaints.

Is it any wonder that under these combined influences woman, with her delicately constructed system, soon begins to languish? It could not be otherwise. Unmistakable symptoms soon develop. She feels tired, weak and languid, and notices a tendency to nervousness, and to worry over small matters which never before troubled her. The feeling of exhaustion gradually increases until there is inability to secure the needed and the person wakes in the morning, tired and unrefreshed, and often with bad taste in the mouth. Loss of appetite soon follows, or it becomes variable with impaired digestion and faintness at the stomach. She tires easily and can do but little work without getting completely exhausted. There is often palpitation of the heart and shortness of breath.

The nervousness increases, and the person becomes restless, irritable and despondent. The weakness and tired feeling becomes more and more aggravated, until the poor sufferer feels tired all the time and does not seem able to do anything. Every movement being an effort. Headache is often present with pains in the side, back or abdomen. Local symptoms manifest themselves such as leucorrhœa, pain, weak back, bearing down sensations, congestion, inflammation, ulceration, falling and irregularities.

Many women allow this condition to continue, saying they have not the time to rest, the work must be done. This is a terrible mistake, for if something is not done soon, complete prostration will result.

There is no greater fallacy than to suppose as was formerly the case, that many of these ailments are incurable. The remedies which Dr. Greene has discovered and prepared for all such complaints are so superior in their quality, and so durable in their results that they positively and permanently cure all these ailments.

The Doctor has spent years in discovering and developing the specific action of the most potent healing vegetable remedies known to the scientific world. Always bearing in mind the exact nature of the part or organ to be treated, he has most skilfully adapted each medicinal quality to the precise organ and disease which nature intended. The delicate and subtile power of medicine to cure disease, when exactly and correctly applied, is thoroughly understood by him. He uses of any kind, believing and knowing from long experience, that much can be done by the use of harmless vegetable remedies, and without the injury always produced by virulent drugs. The tremendous success which has rewarded the Doctor's labors is sufficient evidence that he is in the right.

There is no physician living who has had greater opportunity to observe and study this class of patients than Dr. Greene. He is the most successful specialist in curing female complaints ever known. By the use of his wonderful remedies, the person soon begins to feel her strength returning, the nerves grow strong, sweet sleep returns, the mind regains its buoyancy, the appetite and digestion become normal, the pains cease, and the local symptoms gradually disappear. The pale, thin cheeks become rosy and plump, the step light and brisk, the blood becomes rich and pure, and the person feels renewed life and vigor. She is well and strong once more, ready to look the world in the face and to do her work with an energy and a will which she believed had gone forever.

We wish that every poor, tired out, complaining woman and girl all over this broad land, could realize the vast good which would come to them by taking the remedies. They would not hesitate another moment, but would seek the aid of this successful specialist at once, and get well. Don't wait and work on from day to day, hoping that health will come to you, for it will not come. If you want health, you must take treatment for it, for nothing good in this world is obtained without effort.

The surest, quickest and most certain way to regain your health and become strong and vigorous, is to adopt the treatment so successfully prepared by Dr. Greene of 14 Temple Place, Boston, Mass. He has made the offer of consulting with every one free of charge, either personally or by letter. His prices for his medicines are low, and within the reach of all.

Whig and Courier.

BY THE TELLER BROTHERS.

All matters in which should be addressed to Democratic Headquarters at Augusta should be forwarded to Whig and Courier.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 18, 1894

Out in Illinois the Vice President is telling the people that the Sugar Trust will go to pieces as a result of the Gorman tariff law. But Chairman Wilson in his speech in the House declared that it would be worth some $40,000,000 annually to the trust. Our Democratic friends should agree on what their argument really should be.

The Democratic papers are making much ado over the fact that they have employed Mr. Morton, but they seem to be in a quandary upon the question of the duty to be paid on the work. Should it be the duty on the Paint and Oil Schedule, or that which governs the Treasury Department or possibly the Interior Department or possibly the Agricultural Department? We understand that Mr. Wright, the Democratic Administration editor over at Washington, will start in on the work as soon as he gets through with the Wilson bill.

It is said that Mr. Cleveland has thus far refused to speak in this campaign, but he will probably break his silence before election day. Democratic orators are not wanted in Maine this year.

The Democratic campaign in Maine is being conducted on the line of "anything to beat the Republicans." Democrats from all over the country are coming into the State to help defeat the Republicans, and the Democratic State Committee is sending out campaign literature by the wholesale. Democratic success in Maine this year means the defeat of Democracy in 1896.

ATCHISON ROAD.

Hot Contest for the Control of the Property.

Both Sides Claim Control of Majority of Stock.

Annual Meeting To Be Held This Month at Topeka.

NEW YORK, Oct 17 The contest for the control of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railroad is now at fever heat and both contestants, the present management and the protective committee, claim the victory. The annual election will not be held in Topeka until October [illegible] th but the work of securing proxies is nearly concluded The contest now largely turns on the Amsterdam proxies, representing 80,000 shares of stock The protective committee admit that if the management secure these proxies the committee's fight is almost hopeless The Atchison board of directors met today and accepted the resignation of Allen Speare from the board

An announcement was made that the board has proxies for 591,742 shares, and that H R Duval, president of the Florida Central and Peninsular railroad would be elected at the annual meeting to succeed Mr Spears The significance of this announcement lies in the fact that Mr Duval represents the Amsterdam stockholders and the directors privately assert that they have secured the Amsterdam proxies This claim is disputed by the opposition who state that a representative of the Amsterdam stockholders to-day assured them that it was not yet decided how he shall vote the proxies In confirmation of this [illegible] the protective committee call attention to the fact that Mr Duval was not elected to-day and he will not be elected a director by the management unless the Amsterdam proxies voted for its ticket besides the 80,000 shares the directors counted in their 591,742 proxies, there are 10,000 shares proxies which have been revoked and given to the protective committee which according to its lists already received and promised, will vote 125,000 shares

The largest vote ever cast at an Atchison election was 741,000 shares and it is expected that not over 800,000 of the 1,000,000 shares outstanding will be voted at the coming election If the protective committee has 125,000 proxies as claimed the directors cannot have [illegible],000 proxies even including the Amsterdam proxies as there are a number of stockholders who will not send in proxies The protective committee assert that the directors have really about [illegible] proxies in hand which they can vote The acquisition of 80,000 Amsterdam shares would make the election close with the chances in favor of the management The protective committee will meet tomorrow to select a committee to attend the meeting at Topeka and may announce their ticket It is already settled that Sir [illegible] Sterne [illegible] and Theodore W Meyers, chairman of the commission and [illegible] B Clews [illegible] Henry Clews & Co will attend the meeting.

EXCITEMENT IN OHIO

Effort to Lynch a Prisoner

COLUMBUS O Oct 17 Adjutant General Howe to-day sent two companies of the 14th regiment to Washington court house at the request of Sheriff Cook who telegraphed that a large crowd of farmers was collecting in town and he feared the local military company would not be able to prevent them from executing the threat of taking Dolby the negro rapist from jail and hanging him Sheriff Cook wired that a special grand jury had been empanelled and would indict Dolby It was expected that he would plead guilty and accept the sentence of the court rather than remain in jail at Washington court house another night and run the risk of being lynched

A special received this evening from Washington court house says that Dolby was sentenced to twenty years in the penitentiary The sheriff and three companies of militia started with him to the penitentiary At the depot the mob got possession of the prisoner The militia charged killing two of the mob and recaptured the prisoner who was hurried back to jail A call was made for the first and fourteenth regiments

OFFICIAL TRIAL.

Fine Performance of the Battleship Maine.

Board Much Pleased with the Ship.

Will Meet all Requirements of the Contract

NEW YORK, Oct. 17. The first official trial of the United States battleship Maine was made this afternoon on Long Island Sound. It demonstrated to the satisfaction of the official board and the proprietors of the Quintard Iron Works, of this city, who built her machinery, that the vessel's engines will make the 9,000 collective indicated horse power called for in the contract with the Navy Department and something over The Maine left her anchorage off Pequot House at the entrance to New London harbor, at noon. When the anchor was at the bow she turned in half her length and headed out through the race, then eastward toward Block Island. Her manœuvring pleased Capt. Bunce and aides exceedingly. When off Watch Hill, southerst of Fisher's Island, the helm was put over and turning in the arc of a great circle toward Montauk Point, she swung round to the westward and headed back through the race.

The wind from the westward was fresh and gave promise of an increase. When Race Rock light was abeam at 1 50, the trial, begun twenty minutes before, was scarcely under way. The duties of the engineer judges called for the taking of data showing the development of power in the engines as recorded by the diagrams taken from the indicators at both ends of the three cylinders, also on the auxiliaries named in the contract as well as the steam pressure at the boilers and at the engines, the number of revolutions per minute, the amount of forced draught and other factors to determine the result. These observations by the trial board were taken in eight periods of ten minutes each during four hour hours. At the end of fours (5 40 P M) off Stamford light, the final reading of the indicators was made

During the four hours under forced draught the general averge of steam pressure was 131 pounds at the boiler, and not far from the designed average of 135 pounds at cylinders, the propellers making 127 revolutions per minute on a sustained average during the four hours, the vacuum being appoximately 26 inches As the ship got farther up the sound toward New York, the wind increased until clouds of spray from the bows were at times thrown over the flying bridge The temperature at the cylinders under the protective deck in engine room was 190 degrees, an average of 116 degrees, in the fire room 180 degrees to 190 degrees. The president of the official board, and Chief Engineer Ayres, at the close of the run had nothing but praise for the apparent results attained and smoothness with which everything passed off He said the members of his corps would be busy at the navy yard working out the data for several days and a full report would go to Chief Engineer Melville

Although the trial was for horse power, the speed of the Maine was noted For 25 miles her average speed 15 93 per hour and with allowance for tide result, 17 25 knots The trial ended and the ship went onto the end of the sound shortly before 8 o clock and dropped anchor off Whitestone. Chief Melville and other guests, with the members of the trial board took the train for New York

"We are very glad to learn this," said Mr Moss, "and we will consider the other"

The Trial of Capt. Hall for Killing a Sailor.

Contended that Shooting was Done in Self Defence.

The Jury Acquitted Him After Being Out an Hour.

LONG ISLAND CITY, L. I., Oct. 17 The defence of Captain Parker J. Hall, of the schooner Robert P. King, of Kingston, Mass, who was accused of shooting and killing one of his sailors, named Frank Duard, while at anchor off College Point on the night of July 23d last, was begun before Justice Cullen in the Queens county Supreme Court this morning. The prosecution closed its case by presenting the evidence and the the ante mortem statement of Frank Duard.

In outlining the defence to the jury Lawyer Fromme said they would show that the Duard bothers attacked the captain on his return to the vessel that night and that Capt. Hall drew his revolver in self defence.

Engineer Lederle swore that Capt Hall was badly beaten and looked as if he had been put through a threshing machine Capt. Chas. W. Maker, of the fishing boat Old Dominion, testified that while lying in Portland he had occasion to board the Robert P. King, which was anchored near by. While on deck he heard one of the Duard brothers threaten Capt. Hall.

Later.

Captain Hall was acquitted to-night. The jury was out about an hour.

Progress of the Combinations of the Factions

NEW YORK, Oct 17. A conference was held at Democratic headquarters between John Boyd Thatcher, William R Grace and Francis M. Scott in regard to the placing of Senator Hill's name at the head of the Grace ticket Nathan Straus, the Tammany candidate for Mayor, objected a few days ago to Senator Hill's allowing the Grace men to head their ticket with his name After the conference to-day it was said that the regular State ticket will head the Grace Democratic ticket. The Grace ticket is mostly composed of Republicans, including William L Strong for Mayor

The evening Sun says that Mr Straus has no intention of withdrawing He has not had any such intention at any time since the question of combination tickets came up, according to one of his close personal friends. The same friend said to-day that the managers of Mr. Straus' campaign were playing their hand just as if they held a royal flush in an effort to keep Strong's name off the Democratic State ticket The friend said that Mr. Straus would not withdraw and that he was in the fight to stay

FOOT BALL.

Bowdoin Wins Easy Victory over Colby

BRUNSWICK, Oct. 17. Bowdoin defeated Colby at foot ball here to-day by a score of 28 to 0. Colby played a good game on the defensive, but could do absolutely nothing toward making gains. Bowdoin broke through Colby's line at will and but for fumbles at critical moments would have rolled up a much larger score. Jordan and Chapman tackled finely for Colby and Kimball, Stubbs, Mitchell and Libby all did good work for Bowdoin. The teams lined up as follows:

BOWDOIN.		COLBY.
Hicks, l e		r e Snare
Dewey, l t		r t Chapman

In the show window of Fowler's drug store is the tobacco picture which was exhibited at the fair, representing Taster Castle, Saxony, made of cigars and tobacco by Mr Anthone Cimbolick, an employe of A Lewis. It is very ingenious and attracts much attention.

Mr C. Herbert Sanborn, repairer at the street car shop, slipped from a car last evening as he was alighting near J. E Chapman's store and the wheels ran over one of his feet, inflicting injuries which will disable him for some time. It was an unfortunate accident.

Mr Chester Clark, employed by Leighton, Davenport & Co, had a fortunate escape from a serious accident yesterday. He fell from the roof of a house on Forest avenue where he was at work, but sustained no worse injuries than a fractured wrist and some bruises.

They passed through here this week on their return home, They reported having had a very pleasant trip in spite of one or two rains which they encountered and are enthusiastic over Maine scenery.

The steamer City of Bangor was struck by a sudden and terrific squall while making the landing at Bucksport and was blown against the wharf with considerable force The steamer was not damaged, but the wharf sustained some damage. The steamer arrived here yesterday at noon

A meeting of the city pastors was held at the Young Men's Christian Association yesterday afternoon to consider extending an invitation to Evangelist Jackson to come to Bangor. Mr. R A. Jordan, who went to Boston to see Mr. Jackson, made his report and it was finally voted to extend an invitation to the evangelist to conduct revival meetings here The action of Mr. Jackson will be known in a few days.

The latest extravagant mania is the pipe collecting habit This is a recent importation from London, where pipes have been in high favor ever since the Prince of Wales took to a bull dog Very expensive articles in that line have been introduced into the metropolis this season and $20 is not a high price to pay for some creations Several Bangor men have caught the fever and some fine collections have been started.

Capt Orville C. Oliver, James W Kelley and other steamboat men of Bath are now trying to push a scheme by which a boat can be put on to run from Portland to Belfast, landing at Popham Beach, Pemaquid, Boothbay Harbor, East Boothbay, Rockland and Camden The idea is to supply a steamer to make three round trips a week. Should this boat be decided upon it would probably be built in Bath at the cost of about $75,000, the hull by the New England Shipbuilding Company, and the engine by the Bath Iron Works. Capt. Oliver would command her.

A very ingenious bit of work is the representation of the Brooklyn bridge which was made of pure castile soap and is on exhibition in the store of E. C. Nichols & Co. The realistic effect is added to by various vehicles and underneath the bridge blue cheese cloth represents the bright blue sea while small boats, ocean steamers and other craft quite make you dizzy with their suggestion of choppy seas and high speed. Many cakes of soap were used in the construction. The H. & G. A. Roever Co., of Cincinnati, keeps two men on the road about all the time doing this work. The operator is secret about his work.

The hunters' moon is high in the heavens, having become round-faced and full on the 14th. The phase of the last quarter occurs on the 21st, while the new moon does not arrive until the 28th. On the 14th Mars and the moon were in conjunction, and on the 18th Neptune and the moon, followed on the 20th by a meeting between Jupiter and Luna. Not one of these can be considered as being particularly worth looking at. On the 28th the moon pays two visits, the first to Venus and the second to Saturn, followed by an interchange of civilities with Mercury on the 30th, which, while the closest of all on the monthly calendar, finds the two bodies quite too near the sun for our purposes.

AMUSEMENTS.

The Realistic Comedy-Drama "The Engineer."

"The Engineer," described as a realistic comedy-drama, a perfect revelation of mechanical and scenic ingenuity, etc., will be given at the Opera House next Monday and Tuesday evenings. There have been no theatrical attractions at the Opera House for some time and people will doubtless be eager to see something interesting. The Philadelphia Call in a notice of the performance had the following.

The first Philadelphia production of "The Engineer," was given before a crowded house at the Standard Theatre, last evening. The plot is drawn on lines similar to "The Old Homestead" and "Blue Jeans," and is interesting to a high degree, the characters portrayed being realistic to an extreme. The company is a very strong one, while good clean comedy is interspersed throughout, and several good specialties are introduced at the proper time and place. The play was thoroughly enjoyed by the large audience present.

The Brownies.

The Brownies will appear at the Opera House Friday and Saturday evenings, under the special direction of Fred R. Decker, of New York, who has the exclusive management of the cantata for amateur work. The young people of the Universalist church have a big surprise in store for our people as this presentation will be among the best ever arranged, he says. There has been a large advance sale and all would do well to secure their tickets early at the box office at 9 A. M, this morning.

A Philadelphia dispatch of Oct. 15 to the Boston Herald has the following

The Park Theatre was the objective point theatrically speaking of a great number of Philadelphia first nighters, who turned out this evening to give welcome to the first stage production of the new fairy opera, "Palmer Cox's Brownies."

The theatre was crowded with an audience representative of every walk of life, and it was not many minutes after the rise of the curtain before this distinct novelty of the theatrical season had won applause and respect from its auditors. The writer, Palmer Cox, and Malcolm Douglass, who contributed the music, showed very positive ability in their treatment of the subject, and to the coterie of regular first nighters, who expected to see a strictly children's entertainment, the virility and compactness of the treatment was a genuine surprise. The music was quickly absorbed by the audience, and even between the acts some of its numbers were to be heard quietly hummed in the foyer.

The play or opera has been beautifully staged, and is a novelty in every way.

Notes

Evil days are on the Davy Jones Opera Co., that appeared in this city a few weeks ago Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Graham have attached the show and arrested Charles W. Currier, one of the proprietors, for a bill of $548 due for salaries. Mr. Graham plays the leading role, that of Dominick Shay. A settlement has been made

M. B. Curtis will play Sam'l of Posen here Oct. 31

The Sutro sisters, Rose and Ottilie, pianists, who made such a sensation in London with their ensemble playing, will shortly return to this country and make their debut in Brooklyn at the Seidl Society concert, Nov 13 Much interest is being displayed in the appearance of these two talented young artists who have studied under the best masters in Germany.

Foot Ball Notes

The Cony High School foot ball team and the Lewiston High School team will play in Lewiston next Saturday

Waters coached the Harvard foot ball eleven Monday for the first time this season.

Richardson, Harvard's left end, broke his collar bone while practicing on Jarvis Field, Monday. His accident is the sixth on the Harvard team to date. Harvard is having "hard luck" as the cry is at that college about every year.

The management of the Bangor High School eleven feel like inserting an advertisement of "lost, strayed or stolen," or something similar, for Manager Black of the Cony High School team of Augusta. They have written Black four or five times to arrange a game in the inter-scholastic series, but no answer has been received. Cony is evidently not dead anxious to tackle Bangor's stalwart aggregation. We hardly blame them.

The High School eleven put in some practice yesterday afternoon on the common. They are undecided as yet about a game for next Saturday They have written to arrange an inter-scholastic game with either Waterville or Gardiner but have received no reply. In case neither of these teams will play that day they may decide to go to Brunswick to play the Bowdoin College Sophomores a return game, which would be good practice for them.

The Portland High School team are charged with having acted in an ungentlemanly manner at Saco last Saturday when they played Thornton Academy, after the game. They acted boisterously at the hotel and were ordered out of the house, according to the Biddeford Journal.

Next Friday afternoon the Thornton Academy team will meet Malden High in Saco. This is the first time a Massachusetts team has met Maine boys. The Massachusetts boys will play several teams in this State and if any of the Maine schools make a good showing it is more than probable that at the end of the season the champions of each State will compete for the New England championship.

Foot ball is officially recognized as an extra hazardous game by the authorities at West Point, where there is a standing order requiring a surgeon and an attendant with dressings to be present at every game engaged in by the cadets, for the purpose of making whatever repairs may be necessary without loss of time.

Bowdoin College.

The following men have been initiated into the Alpha Delta Phi Fraternity: Harry Knight, Gardiner; C. D. Moulton, Bath; D. R. Pennell, A. B. White, Arthur Hunt, Lewiston; Walter Sargent, Brewer; O. D. Smith, West Buxton; Edward Stanwood, Jr., Boston.

The painting by Elisher Vedder, recently placed in the west tympana of Sculpture Hall, attracts many visitors to the new art building. The picture is a group of figures representing wisdom, thought, the soul, life, nature, music, love, painting, and sculpture.

The members of the foot ball team weigh as follows:

Libby, r. e., 151 lbs.; Kimball, r. t., 171½ lbs.; Dewey, r. g., 174 lbs.; Dennison, c., 166 lbs.; Stone, l. g., 175¾ lbs.; Newbegin, l t, 162 lbs.; Hicks, l. e., 145¼ lbs.; Mitchell, r. h. b., 151½ lbs.; Stubbs, l. h. b., 161½ lbs.; Knowlton, q. b., 140 lbs.; Quimby, f. b., 162 lbs.

Owing to the many applications for the vacant positions in the library, as assistants to the librarian, Prof. Little introduced a new method of election of men to fill them. Only members of the two lower classes were eligible, and the success of the applicants depended entirely upon the results of a competitive examination based on general knowledge, penmanship and ability to do up parcels neatly and quickly. H. M. Verrill, '97, and J. M. Loring, '98, were chosen. F. G. Kneeland, '97, received honorable mention.

The semi-annual meeting of the Maine branch of the Woman's Board of Missions was held at Bath, yesterday. Mrs. F. E. Rand of Merrimack and Miss Lamson, secretary of junior work, were to be present.

PENOBSCOT CONFERENCE

Second Day's Proceedings at Orono.

The Tuesday evening session of the Penobscot Conference at Orono was devoted to Home Missions. Stereopticon views were presented and explained by Rev. J. E. Adams, General Secretary of the Maine Missionary Society, and Revs. C. W. Shelton and W. G. Puddefoot, of the Congregational Home Missionary Society.

The immigrant question was very ably presented. The immigrants' former home, their quarters upon the ocean steamers, their landing, and then their American homes were shown Life in the lowest classes of the city, on the desolate prairies and in the western States was illustrated. The remarks were extremely interesting and touching. Pictures of some of the workers were given.

The opening service of the second day of the Congregational Conference Wednesday morning was very interesting. After the devotional services, conducted by Rev. S. D. Towne, moderator pro tem, the topic for discussion was opened, "Aggressive Work in Penobscot County." Prof. Paine was not present so the second phase of the work was taken up by Rev. B B. Merrill, "Aggressive Work by the Sunday School." This was followed by a paper on "Aggressive Work by the C E. Societies," by Miss Mary E. Purinton After remarks by the moderator the discussion was made general.

In regard to the different branches of the work many practical suggestions were given "We cannot simply 'hold on' in our church work. Either we are moving forward or else we must be slipping backward" "In proportion as we extend our helpfulness are we ourselves helped." "We all have an individual part in God's work. Are we willing to say 'Here am I, send me?'" "Members of the church have an individual responsibility to attend the conferences and take back to the church enthusiasm, inspiration"

Owing to inability of the nominating committee to serve, it was necessary to appoint a new one This was composed of Rev P J Robinson, of Orono, Rev. B B Merrill, of Brewer, and Rev Mr Mills, of Holden.

At 2 P M the business session was resumed. The report of the nominating committee was accepted with the following nominations Moderator, Rev S D. Towne, scribe, Mrs A L Harvey, treasurer, J S Ellis, auditor, Deacon J. G. Blake, preacher of next conference, Rev. G W Field, of Bangor

The following communication was received from Deacon Duren

BANGOR, October 15, 1894

Dear Brethren and Sisters of Penobscot Conference —

For the past forty-eight years you have been pleased to appoint me as treasurer of the conference and although I would love to serve you longer, as such, if you should so desire, yet on account of dimness of sight I could not well fulfill the trust I have esteemed it a privilege to meet the churches and individual members and to be the channel through which many of their contributions have gone to benevolent objects, without the loss of a cent I have often thought of Christ, the Head of the Church, as looking upon the gifts and givers, as they have been brought to the treasury, and noting with special favor as He did while upon the earth, those which came from self denial and sacrifice

Some of the churches give to each of the seven societies, commended by the Congregational National Council. While it seems desirable that Home and Foreign Missions should receive the largest share, the other causes which have an important part in advancing the Kingdom of our Lord, should be remembered in the thought, sympathy, prayer and gifts of each of our churches, and at least one dollar should be given to these, and so no cyphers be found in our annual reports

It may be of interest to you to know that the first treasurer of the Conference was Deacon George W. Brown, who held the office ten years; then followed Caleb C. Billings, six years, Deacon J. S Wheelwright, five years, E. F. Duren, forty-eight, which makes the total of sixty-nine years, the Conference being organized June, 1825 The accounts have been kept yearly by the auditor, Deacon Wheelwright has been auditor more than forty years

The benevolent contributions for this county before the organization of this conference in 1825 I gathered and they may be found on the treasurer's book. They were taken from the reports of the Maine Missionary Society, the American Board and other sources The amount from 1811, which was the first year reported, to 1824 was $870 00, yearly average, $62 14.

The receipts from the Penobscot Conference, taken at its meetings, have been as follows

First decade,	1825 1834	$ [illegible]7 00
Second "	1835 1844	701 00
Third "	1845 1854	887 00
Fourth "	1855 1864	417 00
Fifth "	1865 1874	[illegible]44 00
Sixth "	1875 1884	242 00
Seventh "	1885 1894	172 00
Total		$2,938 00
Average each year		$41 [illegible]

Part of the receipts in the 3d, 4th and 5th decades were taken to aid feeble churches and build meeting houses.

The benevolent contributions paid into the treasury or sent directly to the societies were as follows

First decade,	1825—1834	$ 2,441 00
Second "	1835—1844	12 372 00
Third "	1845—1854	19,630.00
Fourth "	1855—1864	24 947 00
Fifth "	1865—1874.	25,481.00
Sixth "	1875—1884	42 397 00
Seventh "	1885—1894	81,581.00
Total		$209,[illegible]49.00
Average each year,		$2,990 80

Yours respectfully,

E. FREEMAN DUREN.

The following resolutions were adopted by the conference

Whereas, Deacon E F Duren, of Bangor, has served the Penobscot County Conference of Congregational churches as one of its officers for nearly half a century,

Resolved, That the members of the conference express to Deacon Duren their grateful appreciation of his faithful services and untiring interest in the work and progress of the churches, and

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the records of the conference and that a copy be sent to Deacon Duren.

As no invitation was received for the next conference it was left to the officers to give due notice of such. The usual vote of thanks was moved by Deacon Dole, of Holden, and responded to by Deacon Wyman, of Orono.

A very able sermon was preached by Prof. George W. Gilmore, of Bangor, assisted in the devotional exercises by Rev. C. H. Cutler, of Bangor. His text was from 2d Timothy, 16, 17.

This was followed by the sacrament of the Lord's Supper, administered by Rev. S. L. Bowler and Rev. R. B. Mills, assisted by Deacons C. H. Dole and J. S. Ellis.

After the benediction by Rev. S. L. Bowler, the conference was adjourned until June, 1895.

Game Everywhere.

Numerous parties from Massachusetts and Western Maine have been on the upper Penobscot waters hunting for big game. One party of fourteen brought out seven deer and a large number of partridges. Another of five brought out five deer and one caribou.

Mr. Ed. Whitehouse, of Sherman Mills, shot a large buck on the edge of Mr. J. C. Merry's pasture and about one mile from his home.

Numerous deer have been captured in the vicinity of Sherman.

A large fat coon was seen at Fickett's market yesterday. It is rather early for coons to appear in the market.

W. W. Carman, of Lewiston, has returned home with a handsome deer. He shot it at Molunkus.

Mr. Clarence L. Cummings goes to Islesboro to-day for a short outing trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Hodsdon, of Saco, were at the Bangor House yesterday.

A TRIP TO EGYPT

Mr. Roberson Tells Interesting Story of an Ancient Country

The third in the course of the lectures by Mr. Frank R. Roberson, of Walden, N. Y., which is proving so enjoyable and profitable, was given last evening at the Pine street Methodist church Like those which preceded it it was illustrated by magnificent stereopticon views which gave an added interest to the talk, which was in itself entertainingly and instructively descriptive and held the closest attention of all to the close

Mr Roberson has evidently traveled in foreign countries with both eyes and ears open, for he has gathered material of a large variety which he has condensed in such a manner as to give quite a diversity of knowledge in a short time. Egypt is a country rich in material and has a history peculiar to itself Mr Roberson's talk and views had to do with old Cairo, queer people, their houses and manner of living, palaces, mosque life, strolls on the Blocks of Ages, Oriental luxuriance, manner of grinding corn, Thebes, tombs of kings, the ship of the desert, Egypt's Tivoli and its chewing gum, etc The audience was well entertained by their imaginary trip to foreign lands

The lecture this evening is the concluding one of the series of four given by Mr Roberson After conducting many of our citizens through the Orient on delightful journeyings he carries them to night, by aid of one hundred magnificently colored views, through the old "Land of the Viking"

His pictures of word and camera will delight the eye and ear There should be a crowded complement of passengers who will sail with him and bid him adieu with regret as he reaches his journey's end

CITY AFFAIRS

Sewer Hearing by Municipal Officers—Council Reconsiders Several Matters

A special meeting of the City Council was held last evening by call of the Mayor

No business calling for joint action was transacted by the Board of Aldermen.

Hearings were granted to parties assessed for construction of sewers in Blackstone street, Washington street and Third and Parker streets

The Blackstone street list of assessments, was recommitted to the sewer board for readjustment and the others were finally revised and established

The Common Council reconsidered its former action in regard to paying Messrs Nealey & Warren $100 for the city's share of the construction of a retaining wall at their new building, corner of Harlow and Center streets, and it was voted to concur with the upper board

The council also reconsidered and concurred with the upper board in the matter of legalizing the present turnout of the street railway and in widening Railroad street An adjournment was then taken

Improving Broad Street

F C Fowle & Co are to erect a store house on Broad street, just below E H Noble's coal sheds, where there has stood a rather dilapidated building for some time. The foundations for the new structure, which will be 28 by 105 feet in dimensions, will be put in this autumn and the building operations will commence early in the spring Work is now in progress and when the old building is removed and the new one which will probably be used as a store house, finished, it will be a great improvement to that section Broad street at the lower end is being slowly but surely improved and business is being extended in that direction The new building referred to will be three stories in height and will be ironed on the outside to make it as nearly fire proof in that way as possible It is rumored that other new buildings are projected near by and it is hoped they will become a reality

EARLY MORNING FIRE

A Great Blaze Started at T F Cassidy & Co's Establishment

A few minutes before three o'clock this morning a fire was discovered in the ship chandlery establishment of T F Cassidy & Co, on Front street and an alarm was rung in The first alarm was given by a Maine Central locomotive and the whistle attracted the attention of Officers Fahey and Ladd who had been by there 20 minutes before, and the former pulled in an alarm

A bright blaze was issuing from the roof of the blacksmith shop, which is next the block shop, filled with inflammable material, and the roof of the block shop also caught fire

It looked like a terrific fire to fight as as all were wooden buildings just waiting to burn The boiler house was near and in the rear were the coal sheds of A H Babcock & Co

It appears that the fire caught in the engine room and quickly spread up to the roof People who saw the blaze were sure that a large section was burning up, but fortunately the firemen's work put a different aspect on affairs in a few moments

A second alarm was rung in and the whole department responded The large amount of water poured upon the buildings soon subdued the flames and in an hour all the fire was out But it was a narrow escape

It was fortunate that the Maine Central locomotive was where it was for by that means the fire was discovered early and a heavy loss averted As it is the loss will be small, a few hundred dollars probably

The Currency Question

LONDON, Oct 17 At a meeting of the directors of the Charter Bank of India Australia and China this afternoon the chairman announced that the government had given sanction to the coinage of British dollars for circulation in the Straits settlements and Hong Kong The fall in the price of silver he said had affected the eastern trade and lessened the export of the Mexican dollar to such extent as to threaten the eastern colonies with a total absence of currency In these circumstances the banks and local governments and chambers of commerce asked in concert and obtained the sanction of the treasury to the coinage of the British dollar in Bombay, which would probably be in circulation in the east early in 1895
